

SURVIVE THE HOLIDAYS

By Becca Newell

With a weekend full of non-stop holiday parties and festive house calls—not to mention those unavoidable quick trips to the mall for last-minute Christmas gifts—you can kiss goodbye any time for primping and pampering.

Or so you thought.

Introducing our ultimate “after-party” purse—our not-so-secret, stash of goodies that help to rejuvenate and revitalize dull skin, tired eyes, and so much more. From soothing gel patches and strand-salvaging dry shampoo to the hangover cure-all you won’t want to share, it’s Christmas come early. And we’ve packed it into a clutch so stylish, even Mrs. Claus will be envious!
